Mr. Gary Baeten,

It is my duty as a responsible citizen to try to protect our homes for ourselves and the people that come after us, from a home in our midst being zoned for a business. This will open flood gates to the south side of 24 going commercial!

This is death to a residential area. A growing cancer!

Some of our neighbors are not opposing this zoning change, hoping to get their homes rezoned, also. We don't agree; we want to protect our neighborhood from deterioration.

Many homes on the north side of 24 were removed for Park West, which is now in bankruptcy; this with the traffic problems which it has caused is not progress, it is disaster!

Many cars are driving through our neighborhood to avoid 24!

If the Lassus home is rezoned all people living along 24 are also entitled to a zone change.

It has been our experience, that if it is rezoned from a residence we cannot control what may go in later.

A man that rented the Lassus home, told us there were inquiries to him about buying the home, but were discouraged when told the extremely high price of $45,000; far more than the home will bring as a residence. This is the real issue as to why Jow wants a zone change!

at the hearing Robert Martin of (Benchmark Homes) implied that the renters ain't taking care of the property. The truth is, the owner, Jon Lessue isn't taking care of the property!

Jon and his family lived there for 15 years, raising 4 children from Babies to teenagers, when he built his beautiful estate at Covington Lakes Estates, about a year and a half ago.

He doesn't care what happens to our neighborhood.

If his home (which is in our back yard) is rezoned it will lower the value of our property!

We don't want to make that sacrifice!

We are asking you to protect us, by not rezoning this home from a residence to an R3.

Sincerely,

Sue Zimmermann
